CLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL PENN TWO -CENT LAW DE-

Harrishurg. Pa., Sept. 20.—The 2-cent fare law enacted at the recent session of the Pennsylvania legislature, was adjudegd invalid, unconstitutional and void in its application to the Susquehanna River & Western Railway company, in an opinion yesterday at Bloomfield, by Judge Shuil, of the Perry county court. The law, he declared, in his decree, is in derogation of the Pennsylvania constitution. He quotes figures of the earnings to show that the epforcement of the rate ordained by the act would be confiscatory.

INSTRUCTIONS TO GRAND JURY IN RUICK CASE.

Boise, Ida., Sept. 20.—In charging the special grand jury sworn in today Judge Whitson dwelt at length upon the case against U. S. Dist. Atty. Ruick. Mr. Ruick was charged by members of a former grand jury with practically coercing them to return land fraud indictments against U. S. Senator W. E. Borah and others. Judge Whitson held that the present grand jury could find a true bill against Mr. Ruick only if it could be shown that Mr. Ruick had acted with a corrupt purpose in view. The judge said that if the grand jury found the charges made by the former grand jurors to be false an indictment should issue for them. Boise, Ida., Sept. 20 .- In charging the Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, who is at Cestel Gandolfo, is in direct telephonic communication with the vatican, informing the pope of the situation in various parts of Italy. The government, in order to prevent the possibility of outrages, has caused the vatican to be guarded night and day by troops.

NO CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT FOR CHINA.

Pekin, Sept. 20.—An imperial edict was issued today authorizing Prince Pu Lun, who was Chinese envoy at the St. Louis exposition and Sun Chi Anal, in co-operation with the grand council, to frame resolutions for the establishment of a council of deliberation to ald the government, "so that the foundation may be laid for a parliament." The dowager empress says that in the establishment of a representative government for China, the opinions of all must be considered, and though the upper and lower houses are foundations of administration, the throne is unable to establish them in China at present.

Both Chang Chi Tune and Yuan Shi Koi since coming to Pekin on their appoitment as grand councilers, have urged the establishment of a constitutional form of government, recalling the fact that this reform has been promised and that China and all the rest of the world expect to see it carried out. Memorials to the throne from the highest officials throughout China continue to reach Pekin to large numbers, urging the throne to grant China a constitutional government.

"Your directors have deemed it prudent and proper to apply, so far as practicable, a portion of current income to these uses for two reasons: First, because monetary conditions have not permitted the sale of securities, except at grat sacrifice; and, second, the quotas of bonds authorized by the mortgages for additions and improvements are not far from complete issue, and your directors thought best to hold in reserve the balance of the quotas for future use and when they may be sold at fair prices. The issued bonds available for this purpose are about $2,100,000 Denver & Rio Grande first mortgage 4 per cent bonds and about $1,000,000 Rio Grande Western first consolidated mortgage 4 per cent bonds.

SAN BERNARDINO HAS SHARP EARTHQUAKES.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 29.—An earthquake shock that brought residents of this city into the streets in alarm and caused disarrangements in many households, was experienced here last evening. The direction of the shock was from southeast to northwest, and was preceded by a rumbling noise. There seemed to be a succession of shocks, terminating with a snap that caused fear and trembiling among those here who suffered in the San Francisco disaster. In the mountains, the shock was most severe, causing great trees to sway as if whipped by a mighty tempest. No serious damage was reported in the valley. vas reported in the valley.

FRANCO-CANADIAN TREATY.

Commercial Arrangement Was Signed In Paris Yesterday.

Paris, Sept. 20.—The Franco-Canadian commercial treaty was signed here yesterday. The Associated Press learns that this treaty not only provides for a reciprocal arrangement on a large number of commodities, but also commits itself to a general reciprocal doctrine, designed to cover possible concrete contingencies in the future. Canada is unable to give France a more favorable duty on champagne than was allowed in 1893, but she grants a special tariff on silks, and in return gets a minimum tariff on certain farm and forest products.

PENN 2-CENT RATE.

Argument on Philadelphia's Exception To Court's Ruling, Postponed.

Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Owing to the ngagement of Atty.-Gen. Todd. in connection with the prosecutions of the apitol fraud cases, the argument on the city's exceptions to the court's ruling in the Pennsylvania railroad's 2 ing in the Pennsylvania railroad's 2-cent rate suit, which was to have been heard in comman pleas court tomorrow, has been postponed until the following Saturday. This delay precludes all possibility of getting the matter before the supreme court and disposed of before Oct. 1, the date the new rate law becomes effective, as has been hoped for in some quarters.

In the meantime, the officials of the Pennsylvania and Reading railroads continue reticent as to what action they will take on that date, as to the adjustment of their passenger fare to the 2-cent basis, other than that previously expressed, that there is no disposition to evade the law in the interim.

is now being broached and will be brought before the coming transmississippi commercial congress at Muskogee, I. T. Congressman Stephens is one of the leaders in the movement and will urge it to the attention of the congress. The object of the desired legislation is to arrange for the extension of the reclamation service to this state.

When Texas was admitted to the Union she had been a republic for several years and one of her compacts was that the public lands should be held by the state to be given to the veterans of the struggle with Mexico. This distribution, however, made hardly no impression on the vast public acreage of the state, and now Texas desires the national government to aid desires the national government to aid in reclaiming the arid lands and sub-merged districts.

CALVE DEVOTED HER TIME TO MAKING RAG DOLLS

New York, Sept. 20.-Mmc Emma Calve, the prima donna, who arrived in New York on the Pannonia, devoted her time during the voyage from Gibraitar to making rag doils and hats for the children in the steerage. Many little immigrant girls will grow up to tell how the French singer made them happy on the big steamship that brought them to America for the first time. Mrs. Baskerville, her companion, said Mme. Calve made 56 rag dolls, distributing them to the children herself and cut up half a dozon of her own hats to provide hats for the little girls. One huge doll she modeled after nerself as she appears in the role of Carmen. This was raffled in the first cabin and from the sale of tickets, $75 was obtained for the seamen's benefit fund.

AT NEWHOUSE HOME.

AT NEWHOUSE HOME.

The triumphal return home is just one incident, to finish off the good time had all the way west from Chicago. Tonight the auxious mothers, who have been trying to get their boys back home for several weeks, will give them a banquet at the Newhouse home. After that a large testimonial concert will be given them, probably during the first week in October.

The youngsters left Sait Lake in July expecting to return in a short time, and endoy a summer outing. Before that the band had been organized primarily as part of the juvenile court work of former Judge Willis Brown, and from this organization came the uniforms which made the "kids" distinctlye in Sait Lake's streets.

GOOD REPUTATION.

Since going away on this trip they have acquired a reputation wider than the west. Mr. Christensen brings home with him requests for the band for next summer from a vaudeville circuit, a large number of eastern park man-agers, and from various organizations which would like to have it appear during conventious.
